SAMPLES.

An Open General Licence has been issued which permits the free export of all bonâ fide samples of prohibited goods to all destinations with which trade is now permitted. Samples exported under this licence may be used only for genuine sample purposes, i.e., for obtaining orders from foreign buyers, and may not be sold except with the written consent of the Export Licence Department, but such consent may be dispensed with when it is desired to sell the articles in the country of destination after they have fulfilled their purpose as samples. Exporters will be required to satisfy the Customs Authorities that the goods presented for export under this licence are bonâ fide samples, and to make a declaration to that effect on the relative shipping documents.

This notice only applies to samples of goods which require licences for export to the particular destination concerned.

In addition, the consent of the Export Licence Department is not required for the sale of samples which, though within this scheme at the actual time they were exported, could be exported outside the scheme at the actual time of the proposed sale.

OPEN GENERAL LICENCE FOR COAL EXPORTS.

An Open General Licence has been issued, with effect from Thursday, 1st January, 1920, permitting the export of coal, coke and manufactured fuel to all destinations abroad except Russia, Germany, Hungary, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, subject always to the approval, previously obtained, of the Controller of Coal Mines or his duly authorised representative, and subject to shipment being made in a vessel approved by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise or their Officers.

The Customs Authorities will require pre-entry to be made in all cases; and at ports where there is a duly authorised local representative of the Controller of Coal Mines (see list below), the approval referred to above will be signified by his endorsement on the pre-entry form, which must be presented to him for the purpose before shipment.

Where shipment is proposed to be made from a port not included in the list given below it will be necessary for application for the Controller's approval to be made to the Export Branch of the Coal Mines Department in London. Shipments from all ports in the United Kingdom to the destinations excluded from the purview of the general licence must still be covered by an export licence from the Coal Mines Department.

The following are the ports shipments from which will be covered by the local representative's endorsement on pre-entry:—

District.	Controller's Representative.
All Scottish ports ...	Mr. W. D. Fuller, 4, Dunlop Street, Glasgow.
From Amble to Middlesbrough inclusive).	Mr. W. R. Fisher, Guildhall Chambers, Quayside, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
Humber ports (Hull to Grimsby inclusive).	Mr. A. D. Upton, 120, Alfred Gelder Street, Hull.
Mersey ports ...	Mr. J. Melrandi, Dock Board Offices, Liverpool.
From Burry Port to Newport inclusive.	Mr. L. R. Lewis, Cymrie Buildings, Cardiff.

OPEN GENERAL LICENCE FOR THE EXPORT OF INDUSTRIAL EXPLOSIVES, SMOOTH-BORE GUNS, AND MUNITIONS FOR USE THEREWITH.

An Open General Licence has been issued for the export of industrial explosives, smooth-bore guns, and munitions for use therewith, to the destinations given below, to which, therefore, exports may be made subject to the usual Customs formalities without applications for specific licences to the Export Licence Department:—

British Possessions and Protectorates (see note below).
French Possessions and Protectorates (see note below).
United States of America.
South America.
Japan and Korea.
Asiatic Russia.
France, Belgium, Spain, Portugal, Greece, Italy, Serbia, Roumania, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland and Switzerland.

In accordance with Article 6, Chapter 2, of the 'Arms Convention,' all destinations in the prohibited areas set out in Article 6 are excepted from this Open General Licence and will still require a specific export licence for all arms, ammunition and industrial explosives.

OPEN GENERAL LICENCE FOR THE EXPORT OF AIRCRAFT, etc.

An Open General Licence has been issued for the export of the undermentioned goods to all destinations except Russia, Germany, Hungary, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. Applications are no longer to be made to the Export Licence Department in respect of the export of these goods to countries other than those mentioned:—'Aeroplane engines and their component parts. Aircraft, other than balloons of all kinds, and their component parts, together with accessories and articles suitable for use in connection with aircraft.'

OPEN GENERAL LICENCE FOR THE EXPORT OF PARCELS CONTAINING MISCELLANEOUS FOODSTUFFS.

An Open General Licence has been issued for the export by parcel post of parcels containing miscellaneous foodstuffs (for the personal use of the addressee and not for trading purposes) to all destinations with which trading is allowed. Applications need, therefore, no longer be submitted to the Export Licence Department in respect of the export of such parcels by parcel post.

URGENT ORDERS.

The Board of Trade, Import and Export Section, announces that, in collaboration with the Department of Overseas Trade, an arrangement has been made whereby firms receiving orders which require immediate acceptance may telegraph details of any such order to the Department of Overseas Trade in order to ascertain whether a licence will be granted for the export of the goods if the order is accepted.

In the event of an applicant being promised a licence he will be enabled to deal with the order straightaway with the knowledge that upon application being made in the proper form to the Export Licence Department the licence will be granted.

The telegrams should be addressed to 'Orders, c/o Advantage, Stock, London.' They should give in each case in addition to the name and postal or telegraphic address of the applicant the quantity and description of the goods comprised in the order and the name and address of the ultimate consignee if the goods are destined for a neutral country. In the case of orders from Allied or British Territory or from Territory in the occupation of troops of the Associated Governments, the consignee need not be stated; and it will be sufficient merely to give the country of destination. A reply of 24 words (1/3) must be prepaid.

Applicants are requested in their own interest to confine their enquiries to orders needing a very urgent decision, since the fewer the enquiries the more promptly can answers be given.

Any subsequent correspondence that is necessary in connection with the telegraphic enquiries should be addressed to the Comptroller General, Department of Overseas Trade (Export Facilities Section), 35, Old Queen Street, Westminster, S. W. 1.

Transhipment in the United Kingdom.

The provisional approval of the Import and Export Section, Board of Trade, should be obtained before the following goods are brought to this country for transhipment:—

Bacon, ham and lard of all kinds.
Butter and cheese.
Cereals on Section 'A' of the list of prohibited exports.
Animal feeding stuffs on Section 'A' of the list of prohibited exports.

No. War-O.—The following notification by the Government of India, Commerce and Industry Department, is republished:—

"CUSTOMS—War.

No. 1368-D., dated Delhi, the 21st February 1920.

The following extract from the 'Board of Trade Journal', dated the 15th January 1920, is published for general information:—

Government Notices affecting Trade.

EXPORT SECTION.

CONDITION UNDER WHICH TRADING IS PERMISSIBLE WITH CERTAIN COUNTRIES.

The Board of Trade have issued the following instructions (Cmd. 512, price 1*d.*), dealing with trading conditions with certain countries as a result of ratification of the Peace Treaty:—

The following notes on trading conditions as affected by the raising of the blockade, the authorisation of the resumption of trade with Germany and other countries, and the removal of United Kingdom import restrictions, are published for the information of British traders. These notes supersede those published in July and September last as Parliamentary Returns 'Cmd. 274' and 'Cmd. 350.'

During the war it was necessary to prohibit all trading with the enemy, but the necessity for this prohibition has now ceased. It is no part of the policy of His Majesty's Government to discourage British traders from competing in the markets of the late enemy countries, and it is desirable that British traders should make every effort to secure a proper footing in Central Europe.

I.—GERMANY.

Exports.—Any goods may be sent to Germany without licence, except goods on Lists 'A' and 'B' of prohibited exports. Applications for export licenses in respect of goods included in those Lists should be addressed to the Imports and Exports Licensing Section, 22, Carlisle Place, Westminster, S.W.1.

Imports.—Any goods may be imported from Germany, and paid for, without license except goods whose importation from all foreign countries is prohibited. The import prohibitions established during the war by means of Royal Proclamations issued under section 43 of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, a list of which, so far as they remained in force after 1st September 1919, was published in Parliamentary Paper Cmd. 454, have been temporarily suspended pending either reversal of Mr. Justice Sankey's judgment or legislative action to secure powers to impose a limited number of restrictions. Importers, however, should clearly understand that, in the event of these powers being conferred by Parliament, or in the event of the judgment being reversed on appeal, licences to import restricted goods will not be granted merely on the ground that the goods had been ordered between the date of the judgment and that of the re-establishment of the restrictions, but will be based solely on consideration of the reasonable requirements of the country.

Other transactions.—Other transactions of a commercial or financial nature with firms in Germany are permissible without further licence, provided they do not involve any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) The payment or receipt of money arising out of pre-war transactions;
(b) The delivery of or dealing with property held in this country for persons in Germany since before the outbreak of war;
(c) The transfer of securities by or on behalf of a person in Germany;
(d) The allotment or transfer of securities issued by a Company to or for the benefit of a German subject;
(e) The transfer of any debt or other obligation due to a person in Germany, arising out of pre-war transactions.

It should of course, be understood that, as regards the financing of transactions, traders must make the best arrangements they can, and, in the case of uncertainty as to the best mode of procedure, they should consult their bankers.

Money due to or property acquired by German nationals as a result of transactions entered into since the resumption of trade with Germany was authorised are not liable to sequestration in this country.

II.—TURKEY, BULGARIA AND THE TERRITORIES PREVIOUSLY INCLUDED IN THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN DOMINIONS.

The British regulations are the same as those set out above in the case of Germany except that the collection of debts owned by persons or firms in these territories is allowed.

III.—NORWAY, SWEDEN, DENMARK, HOLLAND AND SWITZERLAND.

It is no longer necessary to obtain certificates from Importing Associations in these countries, or to procure other forms of guarantee, or to consign goods to such Associations Export licences, for which application should be made to the Imports and Exports Licensing Section at the address given above, are required only for goods on Lists 'A' and 'B' of prohibited exports.

IV.—POLAND, FINLAND, ESTHONIA, LETTLAND, LITHUANIA.

So far as British regulations are concerned, there are no special restrictions on trade with these countries, but as in the case of other foreign countries export licences are required for goods on Lists 'A' and 'B' and general prohibitions of import apply to these as to other countries.

Consular Certificates of Origin and Interest.—These certificates are no longer required for goods imported into this country.

Declarations of Ultimate Destination and Disclosure of Names of Consignees.—These declarations will no longer be required to be made in respect of exports from the United Kingdom, and disclosure of the name of the consignee on Bills of Lading or Shipping Manifests is unnecessary, except in a limited number of cases where the Imports and Exports Licensing Section may continue to specify on an export licence the name of the consignee.

(Sd.) A. H. LEY,
Secretary to the Government of India."

NOTE.—The above statements deal only with such regulations as are in force in the United Kingdom Traders should also have regard to the restrictions on imports and exports in operation in foreign countries. Information on the subject may be obtained from the Department of Overseas Trade, 35, Old Queen Street, Westminster, S. W. 1, and 73, Basinghall Street, London, E, C, 2, and is published from time to time as received in the "Board of Trade Journal,".

Secretary to Government.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 17th February 1920.

No. K-Misc.—The following Resolution by the Government of India, Finance Department, is republished:—

"PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES: FUNDS—SERVICE AND OTHER.

No. 272-Gl. (F. E.), dated Delhi, the 11th February 1920.

INCREASE IN THE RATE OF INTEREST ALLOWED ON DEPOSITS IN THE GENERAL PROVIDENT AND OTHER SIMILAR FUNDS FROM 4 PER CENT. TO 5½ PER CENT.

RESOLUTION.

The rise in the rates of interest which the Government of India have had to pay on the money which they borrow in the open market, has led them to take into consideration the question whether the rate of interest on deposits in the General Provident Fund and similar funds should not also be increased.

2. They have now been authorised by His Majesty's Secretary of State for India to announce that interest will be allowed at 5½ per cent. On all deposits, both past and future, and including those in excess of the compulsory minimum, in respect of the following funds:—

1. The General Provident Fund.
2. The Civil Engineers' Provident Fund.
3. The Finance Department Provident Fund.
4. The Police Department Provident Fund.
5. The Geological Survey Department Provident Fund.
6. The Opium Department Provident Fund.
7. The Northern India Salt Revenue Department Provident Fund.
8. The Forest Department Provident Fund.
9. The Civil Veterinary Department Provident Fund.
10. The Post Office Guarantee Fund.
11. The Madras Military Assistant Surgeons' Fund.
12. The Indian Civil Service Provident Fund.
13. The Indian Civil Service Family Pensions Fund.
14. The Indian Military Service Family Pensions Fund, and
15. The Indian Military Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

As regards the last two mentioned funds, the new rate will not apply to the insurance branches, the question being still undecided.

3. The increased rate will be allowed with effect from the 1st of April 1919. It will not, however, be fixed for any definite period but will be subject to reconsideration, should the rates at which the Government of India borrow undergo modification. Six months' notice will however be given to subscribers before any alteration is made.

ORDERED that a copy be published in the Gazette of India.

Secretary to the Government of India."

APPELLATE SIDE.

No. 521.—The Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges of His Majesty's High Court of Judicature at Bombay are pleased to sanction the closing of the Courts of Small Causes at Ahmedabad and Nadiad for the Summer Vacation from Monday the 3rd to Sunday the 30th May 1920, both days inclusive.

Bombay, 19th February 1920.

No. 544.—The Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges are pleased to direct—

(1) that the first part of Criminal Circular No. 57, at page 31 of the High Court Criminal Circular Order Book, 1915, from the words "The following orders" to the words "17th November 1884" be cancelled, and the following be substituted therefor :—

"57. The following orders have been issued in regard to employment of Counsel or pleader for the defence of persons accused of offences punishable with death :—

"In all cases tried by a Sessions Court in which any person is liable to be sentenced to death and in which such person is not represented by Counsel or pleader, a qualified legal practitioner should be requested by the Court to undertake the defence, and his remuneration will be paid by Government. The services of a legal practitioner should be provided irrespective of the ability of the accused to meet the expenses of legal advice, in all cases in which he has not engaged a pleader or Counsel for his defence.

"It is not advisable that the appointment of a pleader for the defence should be deferred until the accused has been called upon to plead. The Counsel or pleader should always be appointed in sufficient time to enable him to take copies of the depositions and other necessary papers which should be furnished free of cost before the commencement of the trial. If the accused pleads guilty, or if at the last moment he appoints another Counsel or pleader, the Counsel or pleader appointed by the Court should still be allowed his fee for the day. In the latter case the copies already prepared will be available upon payment for the use of the Counsel or pleader appointed by the accused."

(2) that the last paragraph of Criminal Circular No. 57 in the said Manual be deleted ; and that High Court Circular No. 511 of 1898 be cancelled.

(Government Resolution, Judicial Department, No. 392, dated the 13th January 1920.)

LATE NOTIFICATIONS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 20th February 1920.

No. 1675.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 16, sub-section (4) of the Indian Arms Act, 1878 (XI of 1878) as amended by Act XX of 1919, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules for carrying into effect the provisions of the said section, namely:—

1. Every licensed dealer with whom any arms, ammunition or military stores have been deposited shall give to the depositor a receipt and shall maintain a register in the appended Form. A copy of the register, certified as a true copy under the signature of the licensed dealer, shall be forwarded on the last day of each quarter, in the City of Bombay, to the Commissioner of Police and elsewhere to the District Magistrate.

2. Arms, ammunition or military stores deposited at police stations shall, if not returned or disposed of within one month from the date of their deposit, be lodged at the headquarters police stores.

3. Subject to the provisions of rule 7 any arms, ammunition or military stores which are not returned or disposed of under section 16 (2) of the Act shall, after the expiration of three years from the date of their deposit, be forfeited to His Majesty.

4. The Commissioner of Police in the City of Bombay and elsewhere the District Magistrate may prescribe fees on payment of which arms, ammunition and military stores shall be periodically oiled, cleaned, etc., at the police station or head-quarters police stores where they are deposited or lodged.

5. Licensed dealers shall not return arms, ammunition or military stores deposited with them to depositors except in the manner and to the extent permitted them for the sale of such arms, ammunition or military stores to such depositors.

6. Licensed dealers shall submit on the 31st of December of each year in the City of Bombay to the Commissioner of Police and elsewhere to the District Magistrate, a statement showing the arms, ammunition and military stores that have become liable to forfeiture under rule 3.

7. Arms, ammunition or military stores deposited by a guardian on behalf of a minor may be left in deposit until the expiration of one year from the date of such minor attaining majority when, if the person entitled to receive them back or dispose of them as prescribed by section 16 (2) of the Act has not taken the requisite action, they shall be forfeited to His Majesty.
